BOARDING FOR EVERY FAMILY

FIVE WAYS TO BOARD · ONE PLACE TO BELONG

WHY BOARDING. WHY LEWESTON.

Boarding at Leweston is not the boarding of a previous generation.

It is not strict visiting hours or a one-size-fits-all weekly commitment. It is not children away from home whether they want to be or not. It is a busy, warm, screen-light environment where young people learn to manage their own time, build friendships across year groups, and develop the kind of independence that stays with them long after they leave.

We rebuilt our boarding offer around one principle: your family should be able to access boarding at the level that works for you. Whether that is a safety-net bed available at short notice, two guaranteed nights a week, or the full experience of seven nights a term with weekends entirely at your discretion.

Five clearly structured packages. A transparent price at every level. The freedom to start where you are and move up as your family's needs change. Nothing hidden. Nothing imposed.

A FLEXIBLE LADDER. START ANYWHERE. GROW AT YOUR OWN PACE.

Five clearly structured packages.

A BED WHEN YOU NEED ONE

Not every family wants or needs a fixed boarding arrangement. For those who would value occasional overnight access, whether for a busy work week, a school event, or simply a situation that arises at short notice, Leweston offers three published nightly rates available to all families. There are no hidden charges and no booking fees. The Standby rate means that no Leweston family is ever left without a bed at short notice.

STANDBY

£60

Emergency booking within 24–48 hours.
All families from Year 4.

SLEEPOVER

£48

Standard ad hoc overnight.
No prior commitment required.

FREQUENT SLEEPER

£40

Additional nights
for Flex boarders and Leweston Sixth.

WHAT BOARDING LIFE LOOKS LIKE - NOT WHAT YOU MIGHT EXPECT

Ask any parent who was sceptical about boarding what changed their mind, and the answer is almost always the same: we came to see it.

Evenings in the Leweston boarding house are active, varied, and genuinely social. There is cooking and crafts, outdoor time in the school grounds, film nights, board games, and the kind of unhurried conversation between children of different ages that is almost impossible to engineer — and that happens naturally when young people share a space over time.

Screens are managed thoughtfully. Supper is communal and noisy and warm. Older pupils look out for younger ones without being asked. Children who arrive uncertain about boarding leave talking about when they can come back.

This is the thing that is hardest to convey on a page and easiest to see in person. We invite you to come and look.

COME AND SEE IT

The best way to understand boarding at Leweston is to spend time in the boarding house. We welcome families to Open Days, private visits, and, for children who want to try before they commit, an informal evening taster, supper included.

For international families, a two day taster visit available before any enrolment decision is made.
